Vendors/ Sponsors must set up between 10:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Take-down must be completed no later than 8:30 p.m., at which time the museum will be locked. A $50 late fee will be assessed for violating museum policy. You must be totally set up and ready to do business no later than 1:45 p.m. Due to festival rules, no vendors arriving after 1:00 pm will be permitted to set up. Event hours are 2:00 p.m. til 7:30 p.m.

Below are the requirements:

I agree to provide my own table, chair and any pop-up tent necessary to cook/serve my products. The only thing I am renting is space and the ability to sell my product. I understand it is rain or shine, and there is a no refund policy. No electric is available; generators are permitted. $50 late take-down fee applies.

The event producers reserve the right to accept or not accept any applicants for any reason, and reserve the right to move your exhibitor location, even on the day of the event, if necessary for the benefit of the festival. I agree I am a Delaware-based business.

Kent County Tourism, Delaware Agricultural Museum, participating wineries, breweries & distilleries, as well as all employees, volunteers and vendors are not liable for any damage to your merchandise, equipment, vehicle or persons working at your display. By signing, I agree to these conditions.

My signature on this form binds me to the rules and requirements of this event. I understand it is rain or shine and there are no refunds.
